Forgiveness Havan

How Many Types of Havans Are There?

Originally, there were eleven types of Havan.

Now-a-days (During the era of Kaliyug) these have been cut to just six:

- Gayatri Havan (Can also be Mataji Havan where Mataji can be Randal Ma, Santoshi Ma, Chandi Paath and so on) A routine Havan performed these days.
- Rudrabhishek Havan (To detour circumstances of ill feelings, ill health or life threatening situations surrounding us)
- Garbhadhan Havan (Havan ceremony performed before conceiving. i.e. when deciding to have a child in the family but prior to intimate relationship)
- Yagnopavit Havan (Janoi or Joining a School)
- Vivah Havan (Usually in two parts – Grah Shanti and Wedding)
- Antem Sanskaar, Shraddh Havan – Last Rites and thereafter related ceremonies

Havan, otherwise known as Sacrificial Fire, has lots of benefits. These can be Scientific, Physical and Mental, Spiritual or a combination of all. Havan should ONLY be performed during the sunlit hours.

You will find my definition of the word Sacrifice in my Blog titled:

- Why not to place a coconut in a Havan (July 2009)
